FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Award Winning Minority Supplier, Bettis Brothers Sand & Gravel Joins EMSDC's Annual Youth Entrepreneur Scholarship Golf Outing as Honorary Chairs

PITTSBURGH, PA - June 1, 2018 - A new fundraising initiative is underway for the reputable Bettis Brothers. Eastern Minority Supplier Development Council (EMSDC) will host the annual Youth Entrepreneur Scholarship Golf Outing on Monday, July 23, from 7:30 a.m. - 5:30 p.m. at Fox Chapel Golf Club, located at 426 Fox Chapel Rd. in Pittsburg. The Youth Entrepreneur Scholarship Golf Outing is a fundraising endeavor that supports the activities, goals and objectives of the EMSDC Council. The golf outing provides certified Minority-owned Business Enterprise (MBE) and corporate representatives the opportunity to network, build relationships and develop partnerships.

This year, Bettis Brothers Sand & Gravel CEO, Jerome Bettis and President, John Bettis, will be serving as Honorary Chairs in an effort to keep the mission of the fundraiser thriving. For Jerome, "this is one familiar project that allows us to stand firm on our mission, not only for the community, but for the youth as well", said Jerome, "if anything, we want to be sure to meet our goal of keeping programs like the golf outing up and running, and we can only do this by building a strong network and partnerships across the board", said John.

During the Youth Entrepreneur Scholarship Golf Outing, there will be various attractions available to participants, including a silent auction which will include prizes such as: gift certificates, gift baskets, tickets to sporting events, concerts, area attractions, art, TVs, Cameras, iPads and other electronics for attendees to bid on and help raise funds for scholarships.

Be sure to join the Bettis brothers as they are supporting their community. Registration is currently open at www.emsdcgolf.org and will close on July 19. Reserve your sponsorship by July 13 to be recognized in printed materials. Registration is non-refundable. For more information, email Meg Markley at mmarkley@emsd.org or call (412) 391-4423.
